NARRATIVE
Narrative
On 07/16/2016 at apprx. 0749hrs., I Officer McDuffie responded to Paul's Funeral Home in reference to vandalism that occurred during the night or early morning hrs. Upon my arrival I noticed several broken egg shells and dried yolk on the building front of the building. I then began to talk to the reporting party Mr. Tony Huell. Mr. Huell stated that when he arrived to work at apprx. 0730hrs., he noticed broken egg shells at the rear door of the building. He walked with me around the building and we saw 4 places where the suspect threw eggs. There was no damage from the vandalism. I asked Mr. Huell if they had any cameras in the locations; he advised the cameras are only placed in the inside of the building. I thanked Mr. Huell for the information and advised him of the process to pick up a report. Case is closed; leads exhausted.
SUPPLEMENT #3 JESSE DICKINSON - 350 08/17/2016 11:23
Supplement/16-014258
Vandalism
Submitted by: Det. Jesse Dickinson
While sitting in my Office Officer R. Jordan came to C.I.D. with Bobby Hodges of Paul's Funeral Home and attempted to view a video of the suspect throwing eggs at Paul's Funeral home. Officer Jordan could not get the video to play and I assisted in getting the video to play.
